However, we will always point out the legal basis on which your personal data is processed at the relevant points in this privacy policy.

4. Disclosure of personal data

The disclosure of personal data also constitutes processing within the meaning of section 3 above. Your personal data will be deleted by us if they are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed, if the processing is not necessary to exercise the right to freedom of expression and information, to fulfil a legal obligation, for reasons of public interest or to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

6. SSL encryption

This web portal uses SSL encryption for security reasons and to protect the transmission of confidential content, such as the enquiries you send to us as the web portal operator. You can recognise an encrypted connection by the fact that the address line of the browser changes from "http://" to "https://" and by the lock symbol in your browser line.

If SSL encryption is activated, the data you transmit to us cannot be read by third parties.
